NEW YORK, April 28, 1869.

A very decided change for the better has marked the condition of the money market since our last writing. This must chiefly be attributed to the flow of currency to this business-centre having set in as usual at this period of the year, about the middle of this month, and continued in this direction since. The call of the Comptroller of the Currency for the statement of the banks as they stood April 17th, also materially relieved this market, by releasing a great deal of money previously held in reserve by the banks, in order to make a good exhibit whenever called upon. Lastly, the change above referred to is also due to the powerful cliques which control the Stock Exchange, finding it of late to their interest to keep and augment the ease of money. Rates of interest on call loans have gradually come down to 6@7 per cent as the rule, and 5 per cent exceptionally. Were it not for the lately increased demand for speculative purposes, interest rates would be still lower, as there is an abundance of funds seeking employment. Commercial paper, especially four months prime double names, is more demanded than offered, and readily discounted at 8@10 per cent. Country banks have lately been conspicuous amongst buyers of this class of paper, owing to the margin between its discount and the market rate of interest.

Foreign Exchanges have lately been stronger and more active, owing chiefly to the exhaustion of cotton bills, and to the provisions required to be made for remittances against May coupons. To-day they are quoted at the basis of: sterling, prime 60 days, 109; short sight, 109¾; commercial, 60 days, 108½.

Gold, since our last writing, touched 135, owing—aside of its scarcity—chiefly to the Cuban question and the difficulty concerning the Alabama claims. It reacted to 133 on the announcement of the Secretary of the Treasury's intention to sell surplus gold. To-day it is quoted at 133½.

United States bonds have lately reached unprecedented figures abroad and at home; here the greater ease of money tending to revive the speculation in bonds, whilst there the investment demand was stimulated by the prompt payment of the May coupons.

State securities have lately been largely dealt in at higher figures, especially Southern.

The market for railway and miscellaneous shares also reflected the easier state of the money market, and the renewal of the speculative fever. If the cliques, having so well succeeded in carrying their loads through and over the late money stringency, should likewise succeed in "unloading" at the present figures, we may soon have to report another exciting tumbling race.

For to-day's Stock quotations see page 22.

The American National Bank has removed from No. 80 to 542 Broadway. Mr. Joseph Pool succeeds Mr. Charles S. Brown as President, and Mr. A. B. Proal succeeds Mr. Amos A. Bradley as Cashier.

THE SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY OF NEW YORK, (see card on 1st page), always keeps for RENT in its burglar-proof vaults several hundred small safes ahead of the demand, at prices varying from $15 to $75 per annum. Some of the wealthiest merchants of this city are among its stockholders, many of whom are also either renters of safes within the company's vaults, or depositors of securities and other valuables under the guarantee of the company. There is a private room, furnished with separate desks, provided for the convenience of the many lady depositors, and another room suitably furnished, for the use of gentlemen depositors. The courteous president, Mr. Jenks, is ever to be found at his post and ready to give every information, aid and facility to the patrons of the institution, or to visitors for business or curiosity.

Messrs. G. P. Rowell & Co., of 40 Park Row, New York, the well known advertising agents, have just issued the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY, a handsome octavo volume of 358 pages, in which may be found, properly classified and digested, a vast amount of information especially valuable to those who wish to increase their business. The list is not nor does it profess to be absolutely perfect, but it is very nearly so, and at all events the best that has yet been issued.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL for May has illustrated sketches of William E. Gladstone, Prime Minister of England; James E. Emerson, American inventor; Caroline L. Herschel, the eminent astronomer; President Grant and his Cabinet officers. Its pages are also filled with measures calculated to reform, elevate and improve mankind socially, intellectually and spiritually.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

Wyoming Co. Nat. Bank, Warsaw, N. Y.
5s raised to 100s. The bank issues no notes above 20s. Easily detected by the 100s in the upper corners on the face of the note. The alterations are made by removing the color and printing in its place. The ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS after "will pay on demand," are unusually well put in. The green ink on the back is of a yellowish tinge.

National Bank of R. I., Newport, R. I.
2s, imitation. Likely to deceive.

Rhode Is. Nat. B'k. Providence, R. I.
2s imitation. Quite well done and very likely to deceive.

5s GREENBACKS.

The green ornamental engraving lengthwise of the bill in the counterfeit is of a paler color than in the genuine, and has a brighter look than the dark green of the original. Seen under the microscope the engraving is coarse, but to the naked eye the bills have a very good appearance.

Albany City National Bank, N. Y.

19s, imitation. The engraving is scratchy, and the general appearance poor when compared with the genuine, but likely to deceive.

Mutual National Bank, Troy, N. Y.

10s, imitation. Well executed and likely to deceive. Shading of "United States" lighter than the genuine.

National Bank of Lebanon, N. H.

10, imitation. Well done.

St. Nicholas National Bank, N. Y. City.

2s, imitation. General appearance good. Shading under title of bank irregular.

Auburn City National Bank, N. Y.

10s, imitation. The paper is good and will wear well. The front of the bill is quite well done, but the back is very much blurred—the left end of the centre engraving looking as rough as a brush heap.

Marine National Bank, N. Y. City.

2, imitation. The shading under the title of the bank is bad, otherwise the bill is very good and likely to deceive.

Tremont National Bank, Boston, Mass.

2s, limit., well done, and will easily deceive the unwary.

Gore Bank, Hamilton, Canada.

4s, a very close imitation—better refuse all bills of this denomination.

20s GREENBACKS.

A dangerous counterfeit. Green ink a good color, but the paper too yellow. Principal defect in the die. No clear and distinct lines around the 20. Looks more like a collection of several spots. Penwork well done, but the face rather coarser than the genuine.

First Nat'l Bank, Louisville, Ky.

5s, imitation. Columns at the left end of the note has no left hand. Engraving rather coarse and heavy.

Tioga National Bank, Owego, N. Y.

50s raised from 5. Well done.

FRAUDULENT BANKS.

Lynn Park National Bank, N. Y. (No such bank.)

2s. Very well done.

Nat. Union Bank of Linderpark, N. Y.

2s, (NO SUCH BANK) well calculated to deceive.

National Bank of Idaho Territory.

10s. Well done.

National Bank of the State "IN" N. Y.

10s. Coarsely done.

Mechanics' National Bank of Jancsville, N. Y.—(NO SUCH BANK.)

10s. A very good looking bill—look out for them.

Each Newspaper is examined daily by competent persons, and every insertion of each advertisement checked upon books kept for the purpose. If any omissions occur, the publishers are duly notified and required to make the full number of insertions good.

Our arrangements for the careful and methodical transaction of our business are most complete, and advertisers could afford to pay an increased price to secure our services were it necessary, but such is not the case, as our commissions are paid by Publishers, and the rates at which we contract are lower than could be obtained from the offices of the newspapers direct.

We receive advertisements for all Newspapers throughout the Country at Publishers' Rates; and with many of the Leading Papers we have Special Contracts whereby advantages are secured for our customers.

Estimates, showing the cost of advertising in any list of papers, furnished on application.

We receive the largest Newspaper Mail that comes to New York City.

We—ourselves—BELIEVE in Advertising; we cannot recall the name of any business firm which is at the present time so extensively advertised as our own.

We know by experience WHERE and HOW to Advertise.

The amount of Advertising sent from our house, in a single year, exceeds, by many thousand dollars, that emanating from any similar establishment in the world.

Advertisers will readily see the advantages we possess for transacting their business.

2s, lower left centre, a large oval portrait of Alexander Hamilton—left end, 2 on a die; 11 below on a green die; right end, 2 on a die; signatures below on a green tint separated by two strips of black lathe-work.

20s, in center, a female erect, with sword and shield, between figure 20 and two green dies; figure 20 each side—TWENTY DOLLARS across each end in green die work—fancy green back.

50s left centre, oval portrait of Hamilton; Treasury die in pink on right of die; 50 on die on each end of note.

100s, upper left centre, large spread eagle sitting on a rock; Treasurer's die in pink and 100 in green die on right of vig.—right upper corner 100 on a black die—lower left corner 100 on a black die.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

1s, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is a lighter green than the genuine.

1s, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a black straight line under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gen.

2s, limit, well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

5s, 10s, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

5s, limit, words "United States" heavily shaded. Gen. are clear, lightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 30th June, 1857," under the words N. York are not on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfeits are letter A, and are  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of 1000 "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfeits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

5s, limit, this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The limit has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10s, Paper very light, and the green ink of a lighter shade. Dated March 10th, 1862.

10s alt'd from 1s, portrait of Chase on left.

10s limit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bk Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs on limit, and 8 on the genuine.

10s, limit, has 14 small x's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 x's each side of engraver's name. Portrait of Pres. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; limit are dated Washington, March 19, 1862, letter C.

20s, very close limit of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and uneven. The letter 'x' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

50s, alt'd from 2s, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

50s, limit, observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the limit runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word "FIFTY" around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words "LOCAL NUMBER" is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 8, '63. On the left lower corner the No. 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

50s, limit, observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim, in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

100s, limit, the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rule, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

100s, limit, (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

100s, limit, (8d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

The following are the words on the coupons: "Acts of July 17 and August 6, 1861. The United States of America will pay to bearer fifteen dollars for six months' interest due 1st January, 1867, upon bond No. 785, for $50. L. E. Chittenden, Register United States Treasury."

FIVE CENT COIN COUNTERFEITS

Are in circulation. They may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal.

COUNTERFEIT

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Old Issue.

50s, limit, the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

25s, limit, well executed. Look out.

2d Issue.

10s, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositaries," the imitation reads "Depositories."

50s, limit, have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

50s raised from 5s.

3d Issue.

50c, limit; two kinds of the new long 50 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelled, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. Not so on the genuine.

25s, limit, are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the bill in the genuine there is a fine horizontal line—the counterfeits have a straight line.

Notice the shading of the "25" on the back of the note. The genuine is dark, while the counterfeits is very pale, and very little darker than the other green. The word "of" on the face of the genuine appears thus—"of"—on the counterfeit "ef."

25s, limit, well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

25s, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelled "Assistatn." In the genuine the shading of the letter "E" in "Fire" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

50s, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The reverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

50s, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

50s, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "fifty cents" being almost obliterated.

50s, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print, on one end, and the d. after March 30.

50s. New and dangerous counterfeits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 30," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

COUNTERFEIT 7.30 BONDS.

The seal is slightly larger than the genuine; the red ink with which it is stamped is a shade lighter, and the points projecting from the seal are blurred and a little longer than the genuine. The imprint at the bottom of the face of the bond is set different in the margin, there being more space given it than in the genuine. The borders of the coupon which are attached to the counterfeit bonds are larger, while the red figures are finer than in the genuine. The borders of the ornamental lathe work are blurred and somewhat indifferently executed. The figures denoting the bond are slightly uneven, while the blue ink in which they are printed is a duller blue and lacks the metallic glossy appearance of the genuine.

20s, imitation. The left hand of the soldier holding the gun does not touch the D in "Deposited;" in genuine it does. The butt of the musket on lower left corner touches the scroll work around figures "20;" and the hand of the female on the man's breast, the fingers can scarcely be seen. The shield behind eagle on back of note has but six stars, and very imperfect. genuine shows 17.
